

Personal Safety Performance

Zero fatalities in 2015

The over-seven-day injury rate is at its lowest since 1995-96

20%

The specified injury rate declined by 20 per cent between 2013 and 2015

The lost time injury frequency is below the European average and lower than Norway, Denmark and Ireland

Process Safety Performance

30%

Dangerous occurrences decreased by almost 30 per cent between 2013 and 2015

Total number of hydrocarbon releases rose by 9 per cent in 2015 with majority being minor releases

Since a 2004 peak, the total number of hydrocarbon releases has decreased by 70 per cent

Maintenance backlog is being tackled by industry, with year-on-year reductions now being reported