

Conference Confidentiality Rule

External Document

The following guidelines apply to Events held under the OGUKUK Conference Confidentiality Rule:

Pre-Event

- No pre-read/abstracts (other than a general description of the topics to be discussed) are circulated prior to the Event
- Only speakers' names, job titles, companies and presentation titles (and bios, if provided) are used to promote the Event
- Social media will be used by OGUK to promote Event sales
- Any press releases to promote the Event will not share content, other than a general description of the topics to be discussed

During the Event

- Social media will be used by OGUK to promote the Event on the day, but no slides or any other sensitive information from the conference presentations will be disclosed
- There will be no press/media in attendance
- On-site information like presentations will not be shared with delegates
- Our photographer is prohibited from taking pictures which have slides in the background
- Reminders will be given to delegates during the Event that they may not use their phones to take photos of the slides or share the content in another form.
- Staff in the room will monitor for people abusing this rule and will intervene if appropriate

Post-Event

- No slides/write-ups are shared with delegates after the Event
